

Doughnuts with Dad

On August 28, 2013, Dads of Langston Focus School students were invited to the campus to share doughnuts with their young adults. The event allowed time for the administrative staff to interact and communicate with students as well as Dads of Langston; all while enjoying tasty treats.